

Kindergarten Spanish Units and Learning Targets

Unit 1: Hola amigos-Hello Friends

I can understand that the world has many languages.

I can follow basic classroom instructions.

I can tell why learning another language is important.

I can greet a friend.

I can say goodbye to a friend.

I can use the appropriate greeting phrase for the time of day.

I can use appropriate cultural gestures for greetings.

I can say how I feel.

I can ask a friend how he or she feels.

I can tell a friend my name.

I can ask a friend his or her name.

Unit 2: Fiesta mexicana-Mexican Fiesta

I can locate the U.S. and Mexico on a map or globe.

I can name the language spoken in the U.S. and Mexico.

I can recognize the U.S. flag and the Mexican flag.

I can recognize basic colors.

I can create a color pattern.

I can recognize basic shapes.

I can create a shape pattern.

I can count from 0-10.

I can identify numbers 0-10.

I can recognize the days of the week.

I can recognize the months.

Unit 3: El mundo maravilloso del invierno-Winter Wonderland

I can recognize winter clothing.

I know how people in Mexico celebrate Christmas.

Unit 4: Yo soy especial- I Am Special

I can recognize body parts.

I can describe the color of my hair.

I can describe the color of my eyes.

Unit 5: La familia y los amigos- Family and Friends

I can identify family members.

I can understand how families are the same.

I can understand how families are different.

I can identify expected behaviors of a friend.

I can understand that there are different homes in Wisconsin.

I can understand that there are different homes in the world.

Unit 6: La comunidad- The Community

I can identify school jobs.

I can understand how people in different jobs help around school.

I can identify jobs in the community.